Under Paris Rooftops - Norman & Arleen Shabel

$19.99

How many American couples dream of buying a piece of Paris? The authors of this non-fiction comedy of errors and rewards will bring feelings of fear and envy to the reader. A piece of Eiffel Tower, the Arc de Triomphe, the Louvre and the medieval French legal and banking systems greeted the two fearless American authors.

Join with them as they travel through the circus of buying a Paris apartment, completely revamping the interior, and finally enjoying every crazy moment of the day-to-day life of the City of Lights. This is a book of joy and sorrow, of misery and humor, but most of all, of a fearless adventure that every American couple should take and enjoy.
